II. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

1. April 11, 2023

Motion: Aric Geda

Second: John Greeson

Vote: Unanimous

III. OLD BUSINESS

1. John Braxton and Pat Bailey memorial plaques

Tonya Caddle gave an update on the language of the plat. Her, Ravi Balan, and Laurie Smith are working on drafts for each to eventually bring to each family.

Rodney Cheek noted that either the board can approve the language and then it can go to the families or it can go to the families then be approved via board.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

1. Commissioner Application: Megan Privett

Megan introduced herself to the Commission, stating that she has lived in North Carolina for 17 years, and Alamance County for 10 years. She is an architectural historian with a background in preservation, and wanted to get involved in the community. She has 3 daughters; her twins go to Sylvan, and aside from her current job also teaches dance. She has briefly served on the Commission before, but had to move to Chatham County. She stated that she is passionate about preserving what the county has.

Ravi Balan noted that the background in history and relationship with the N.C. preservation office will be very useful.

Motion to recommend appointment: John Greeson

Second: Ravi Balan

Vote: Unanimous

V. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonya clarified why Arnetta Giradeau had not been appointed yet, stating that it had not been put on the Commissioners agenda despite making a request. She stated that both Arnetta and Megan will be voted on during the upcoming Monday night meeting via consent agenda.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn: Aric Geda

Second: John Greeson

Vote: Unanimous

Adjourned at: 6:11 pm.
